Dear Angie:

Thank you for your recent inquiry regarding the ANA first day cover with an elongated cant.

I do wish that I could accommodate you with a specimen of it, especially in view of how helpful you have been to me with my Kennedy book. Regrettably, there are none left.

One hundred serially numbered covers were made to mark the opening of National Coin Week here at the ANA headquarters city. A brief mention was made in the local paper and the following morning we had a waiting line at the office to purchase these covers. They went $oo fast that I was not even able to obtain one for myself.

However, I will keep my eyes open at the local coin shows and if one turns up, I will be most happy to obtain it and forward it on to you.

Sincerely,

EDWARD C. ROCHETTE
